Mothers

Proud, Memorable, Upbeat, Cheerful, Heart Breaking, Sad, Lonely, Fatigued, Hardworking, Dog-tired, Full of love, Excited

These are all words that describe how we all feel on Mothers day. Today is about remembering all the special women in your life that have helped shape the person you have become.

To you who want a baby so bad but cannot conceive... We see you! We may not know what to say or how to say it but we love you. We want to walk with you in these hard times and help be some comfort in this storm.

To you who are mothering infants thru middle schoolers... We see you! You are tired and exhausted but you are more beautiful than ever. Have fun and slow down!

To you who have high school/Graduates... We see you running around crazy trying to find pictures for banquets, graduation and award ceremonies. We see the tears in your eyes and we are here to hug your neck.

To you whose Mommas or babies are in Heaven... We will laugh and cry with you and listen to your stories. "Remembering you is easy. I do it every day, but missing you is a heartache that never goes away. - sayinggoodbye.org

Happy Mother's Day to you, Whatever phase you are in... we see you!!
