DC Kids

A Few Thank You's and an Invitation

Here we are almost a month into the new year, and I just want to take a moment say THANK YOU to all the volunteers who make our DC Kids classes and activities so special. It definitely takes a village, and our DC Kids volunteer village is (can you believe this?) over 75 members strong! That's right, we have more than 75 committed, dedicated, creative and kid-loving souls who serve in several capacities in DC Kids throughout the year. So, whether you are a teacher, teaching assistant, long-term volunteer or special event helper, please accept a grateful thank you from me, our kids, and our parents. And, if you are interested in joining the BEST volunteer village on the planet, shoot me an email or a text message. No matter your experience level or time availability, if you feel called to serve children and families, we can find the perfect place for you! Thank you, Your Friendly Neighborhood Family Resource Minister, Shannon. sdavis@delcitychurch.org or 405-219-9327.

Today's Message -

The Link | January 27, 2019

There's always room for one more.

My last year of Winterfest was bittersweet but, it pushed me in the right direction for the next chapter of my life. Telling your story or testimony is not easy. In fact, it's one of the most vulnerable things you can do. There are steps one must take in order to tell others your story. See and start, tell and talk, enter and express, pray and repeat.

One thing I took away from this year is that everyone has a story to tell and that when life doesn't seem to be going well; that's when Jesus steps into our story and we have a chance to be a part of something bigger.
