

Sunday Morning Adult Bible Classes Coming Soon

Beginning Sunday morning, June 13, we will be offering a variety of Adult Classes for your spiritual enrichment, edification and enhanced fellowship. Being part of a smaller class is a great way to become better acquainted with one another while learning the Word of God. Please review the Class choices below and plan to participate.

Room 104

Mark Carr and Tim Hempel will be following the Standard Lesson Commentary for 2020-2021. The summer subject is "Our Confident Hope."

Room 106

Ivan Gonzalez will be teaching a class called "Discipleship on the Deep End." This study will be geared toward the College/Young Adult age group, and will be a challenging study of Christ's call to radical discipleship and what that looks like for us.

Room 108

Rob Weaver and Tim Corbeil will be teaching a class they call "Handling Your Money God's Way," which will give solid and biblical guidance on how God expects us to manage our finances in a way that honors Him and prepares us to live life free from financial stress.

Chapel

Chris Dillinger will be teaching a class called "The Truth Project: A Christian Worldview." The Secular Worldview has increasingly obscured the concept of absolute truth. This study will strengthen the Christian Worldview by re-establishing the fact that absolute truth exists by looking at various pillars of truth, examining its biblical foundation and the overwhelming evidence all around us.

Please save this list of class offerings for future reference and be praying about which class you would like to join.

We need you to make our new all church family album complete!
